Aeons is an experimental display typeface with a free-flowing and organic flare. The combination of decorative serifs, ball terminals and unique cuts, helps to add more personality and visual interest to each letterform.

Aeons covers 2 modes of reading: activating typography and staged typography; meaning that the focus of this typeface is to grab attention and reel in interest.

Aeons is designed for both print and digital spaces, most optimal for mediums like: social media posts, Website banners, store front designs and product packaging etc.
